Preface

The aim of secondary education is to make the learners fit for entry into higher education by flourishing their latent talents and prospects with a view to building the nation with the spirit of the Language Movement and the Liberation War. To make the learners skilled and competent citizens of the country based on the economic, social, cultural and environmental settings is also an important issue of secondary education.

The textbooks of secondary level have been written and compiled according to the revised curriculum 2012 in accordance with the aims and objectives of National Education Policy 2010. Contents and presentations of the textbooks have been selected according to the moral and humanistic values of Bengali tradition and culture and the spirit of Liberation War 1971 ensuring equal dignity for all irrespective of caste and creed of different religions and sex.

The present government is committed to ensure the successful implementation of Vision 2021. Honourable Prime Minister, Government of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, Sheikh Hasina expressed her firm determination to make the country free from illiteracy and instructed the concerned authority to give free textbooks to every student of the country. National Curriculum and Textbook Board started to distribute textbooks free of cost since 2010 according to her instruction.

In the era of globalisation, English is one of the most powerful tools for pursuing higher studies, using technology, intercultural and interpersonal communications, and job markets at home and abroad. The curriculum makes it explicit that language learning will be graded and contents will reflect real life situations as the ultimate purpose of language learning is to communicate. The English for Today textbooks have been developed to help students attain competency in all four language skills, i.e. listening, speaking, reading and writing. The contents and illustrations of this textbook have been developed in order to suit the learners' age and cognitive level. It is to mention, this textbook was reviewed and revised from the academic year 2021.

I thank sincerely all who were involved in the process of revision, writing, editing, art and design of the textbook for their intellectual labour.

4. I am good at _____ and _____.
5. My hobbies are _____ and _____.

7. I really don't like _____.

B Read the following passage about Tarun's first day in the new school.

My first day at the new school was interesting. I was going to school with my father in a rickshaw. We reached school after fifteen minutes. My father said good bye and left me at the school gate. I went in and found that everyone had gone to class. I walked into my classroom and found a seat. After sometime a teacher came and warmly greeted us. I found the students very friendly in my new class.

B1 Choose the right answer :

The passage is about

- a who took Tarun to school the first day.
- b how Tarun felt on the first day in school and why he felt so.
- c what happened in the school on the first day.

- B2 Match a word from Column A with a word (or words) from Column B that has (or have) similar meaning.

Column A	Column B

Let us try.

- C1 Notice the use of punctuation marks in the poem. Why are the exclamation marks (!), the question marks (?), and the full stops (.) used in these places?

Lesson 2

Congratulations! Well done!

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- ask and answer questions
- read and understand written instructions
- participate in short dialogues and conversations on familiar topics

A We often use some routine expressions in our everyday conversations. Read the following conversations and see some of the different ways in which we can respond to a good or bad news.

i) Babul goes to a school in Dhaka and his parents live in a small town in Tangail district. Babul is talking to his father over telephone.

Babul Hello, Dad!

Dad Babul? How are you?

Babul Fine, Dad. I just got my exam result. I've got an A in my English test!

Dad Well done, son! I'm so proud of you!

Babul Thanks, Dad. By the way I have to go now. I'll call you again.

Dad Bye, son. Take care.

Babul You too, Dad. Bye!

ii) Rahul is a good singer. He loves to sing folk songs and is quite popular with the young generation. His new album has just come out.

Nina Hello, Rahul! You look very happy today!

Rahul I am happy. I just heard that my new album of Lalon's songs has been a hit!

Nina Oh, great! Congratulations!

Rahul Thanks, Nina. I can't tell you how happy I am!

iii) Manzoor is a student of class six in a Government High School in Rajbari. Recently there was an inter-school essay competition on the occasion of our Independence Day. Manzoor had participated and got a prize.

Raj Hello, Manzoor! What's the matter?
You look excited!

Manzoor You remember the competition, I took part?

Raj Yes, I do. What happened?

Manzoor I am happy that I've won the competition!
In fact, I've won the first prize!

Raj Oh, that's marvelous! Congratulation!

Manzoor Thanks, Raj.

Language Focus

When we are glad or happy to hear about any good news, we usually express our happiness with these expressions: Congratulations! Well done! That's marvelous! That's wonderful! Great!, etc. In return the other person usually says, 'Thanks' or 'Thank you'.

A1 Discuss with the meanings of: generation, album, hit as a partner they have been used in the conversations above.

The words album and hit can be used in more than one meaning.
Discuss in groups and see if you can guess the other meanings.

A2 Practise the conversations above in pairs.

B Let's now see what we say when we hear about something not good or not happy. Read the following dialogues.

- i) Bobby Hi, Sujan! Why didn't you come to school last week?
Sujan I had the flu. I was in bed most of the time.
Bobby Oh, I'm sorry to hear that. How do you feel now?
- ii) Shakil Hello, Manik! Why are you so quiet today?
Manik Did you see that pen my father gave me? I've lost it. It was very dear to me!
Shakil Oh, I'm so sorry! How did you lose it?
Manik I don't know! I think I dropped it somewhere.
- iii) Shanu Hi, Munira! Have you seen the result?
Munira Yes. I've failed in my math test.
Shanu Oh, that's bad luck!
Munira I don't know how to tell my parents.
Shanu I think they will understand.
I know you'll do better next time.

Language Focus

When we hear about any bad news, we say, 'I'm sorry to hear that' or 'That's bad luck', etc. In response the other person usually doesn't say anything.

B1 Practise saying the above conversations in pairs.

B2 Answer the following questions.

What would you say to somebody who:

- a has won a lottery?
- b has lost a football match?
- c has just congratulated you on your good result?
- d has been ill?
- e has been selected for a music programme on TV?

B3 Work with a partner. Make short conversations on the situations given in B2.

Lesson 3

At a railway station

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- talk about people, places and familiar objects in short and simple sentences
- read and understand texts

A Read the following passage.

My friend Sajjad and I were sitting at the railway station. I came to see him off. Sajjad was going to Dhaka to his elder sister's house. It was very crowded in the station. There was a long line of people at the ticket counter. A woman was standing in the queue. She was holding her child's hand tightly. A group of young people was talking loudly and drinking tea in front of a tea stall. An old couple was trying to find a quiet place to sit down and rest. The waiting room was crowded, too. I saw a man who was trying to carry three heavy suitcases. A young lady was sitting on a bench with her luggage at one corner. She was reading a magazine.

My friend and I stood near a newspaper stall talking and watching the crowd around. Soon my friend's train started to leave. As the train whistled, he picked up his suitcase and we said goodbye to each other.

- A1 Talk about what the speaker saw and did at the railway station. Use your own words.
- A2 Match a word from Column A with a word in Column B that has an opposite meaning. One is done for you.

Column A	Column B
see off	light
long	busy
quiet	receive
heavy	drop
pick up	short

A3 Look at the picture below. Talk about what things you see and what are happening.

A4 Suppose you went to one of the places listed below. Describe what you saw, what were happening and what you did there.

- i) A shopping place
- ii) A bus station
- iii) A fair

Lesson 4

Where are you from?

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- recognize word and stress on words in sentences
- talk about people, places and familiar objects in short and simple sentences
- ask and answer questions

It is natural that when two persons meet they would continue their conversation. They may want to know where the other comes from, or what the other person does and so on. Here are some conversations in such everyday situations.

A Listen to and then practise the conversations below with your class friends.

i) Mamun and his friend Akash have gone to a book fair. A lot of people have also come. They are all talking, laughing and buying books. Mamun introduces Akash to someone. Akash cannot hear his name. Because of the noise around.

Mamun Akash, I'd like you to meet

Akash Hello! My name is Akash. I'm sorry, I couldn't catch your name.

The stranger James. James Collins. Nice to meet you.

Akash Nice to meet you, too. Where are you from, James?
James I'm from England.

A1 Imagine that you are at a bus/railway station. A friend introduces you to somebody. You couldn't hear his name properly for the sound around. Now, make a conversation among you, your friend and the new person.

ii) Sometimes the same questions can be asked in a different way. Here is a conversation between an Immigration officer and a passenger at the Shahjalal International Airport, Dhaka. Listen to the conversation first and then practise it with a partner.

Officer	Your name, Sir?
Passenger	Robert Smith.
Officer	Where do you come from, Mr. Smith?
Passenger	Australia.
Officer	And where are you coming from now?
Passenger	I'm coming from London.
Officer	Welcome to Bangladesh, Sir. Have a nice stay.
Passenger	Thank you.

A2 In the above conversation the officer asks the passenger first time "Where do you come from?" and again he asks the passenger "And where are you coming from now?" Why?

iii) It's the first day in the new class after the annual exam. The boy sitting next to Joy is a new student. Listen to and practise the conversation below.

Joy	Hello! I'm Joy. I'm the class captain.
New student	Hi! My name is Sajed.
Joy	Where do you come from, Sajed?
Sajed	I'm from Sylhet. My father got transferred here. That's why I'm here in Khulna.
Joy	Well, I'm sure you will like Khulna and your new school.
Sajed	I know I will. Will you be my friend?
Joy	I'm already your friend!

A3 Joy asks Sajed "Where do you come from, Sajed?" What could Joy ask him instead?

iv) Mamun and Akash are talking about Mamun's cousin Ruma. Listen to and practise the conversation in pairs.

Akash What does your cousin do, Mamun?

Mamun She is an architect.

She mostly designs
offices and shopping complexes.

Akash What is she doing at the moment?

Mamun Well, at the moment
she is designing something different.

She is designing a school building at the outskirts of Dhaka.

v) Mary and her mother are sitting in their living room. Mary's mother Rabeya Begum is watching TV and Mary is reading a story book. Their neighbour's little boy is crying at the top of his voice.

Rabeya : I just don't understand! That boy is screaming so much!
Maybe he is hungry.

Mary I don't think so.

Maybe he is crying
for his mother.

Rabeya Why, what does she do?

Mary She works part-time at the Town Hall Library.

A4 Listen to the conversation between Akash and Mamun, and between Rabeya and Mary again. What difference do you find in the questions "what is she doing at the moment?" and "what does she do?"

Language Focus

Notice that sometimes the answer to "Where do you come from?" or "Where are you from?" is the name of the country one belongs to. But when both the speakers are from the same country, the question would obviously mean what part of the country one belongs to.

Notice the difference between "What do you do?" and "What are you doing?" 'What do you do?' means the same as 'What's your profession?' On the other hand, 'What are you doing' refers to what you are doing at the moment, or something you are doing around that time.

- B Look at the pictures below. Ask and answer questions about what each person's profession is, and what he or she is doing at the moment.

Follow this model:

What's his/her name? What does he/she do?

What is he/she doing now?

At the moment he/she is _____.

He/she is not _____ . (not doing what he/she usually does, e.g.

He is not seeing a patient)

Captain Harun, Pilot

Nadia Sultana, Student

Rashid Ahmed, Doctor

Shumana Chowdhury, Lawyer

Bulbul collects rubbish from the Sankar area in Dhaka. Every morning, he wakes up at 5 o'clock and walks along the streets of Sankar to collect rubbish. People of Sankar put their rubbish in plastic bins and leave them in front of their houses. Bulbul walks from door to door to collect them. Sometimes the bins are very dirty and they smell bad. But Bulbul does not mind. He takes out everything from the bins and puts them in his van. He believes that all jobs are important. He works hard every day to keep this area clean.

Last month Bulbul was sick for two days. So, he could not come to collect the rubbish. The people of Sankar were in great trouble. They got piles of rubbish waiting in front of their houses. The whole area became dirty and unhygienic. When Bulbul got well, he came back to Sankar. He collected everything from all the bins. Bulbul does not want to fall sick again. He realises, if he stops working even for a few days only, the whole area will turn into a big dustbin.

- d) How does he/she do the work?
- e) Does he/she like the job? Why/why not?
- f) What will happen if he/she stops working?
- g) What do you think about his/her job?

Language Focus:

Notice the verbs in the italics in the following sentences.

- a) Bulbul collects rubbish from the Sankar area in Dhaka
- b) Every day he wakes up at 5 o'clock and walks along the streets of Sankar.

We talk about usual routines in simple present tense. In simple present tense, the verb takes an 's' or 'es' if the subject is any one person/he/she etc.

Notice the verbs in the following sentences in italics.

- a) The people in Sankar area became very upset.
- b) They got piles of rubbish waiting outside their house.

All the sentences here talk about the past. So, they are in simple past tense. In simple past tense, the verb is always in its past form (e.g. got, became, etc.).

B3 Underline all the verbs in text on Bulbul (B). Write down the past form of the verb in the present tense. Also write down the present form of the verb in the past tense.

People around the world are slowly changing their attitude towards medicine. More and more they are turning to natural cures. Natural cures are made of natural things, most often herbs and plants. History says that natural or herbal remedies are nothing new. People used them all along in different ages. Herbal medicines were used in ancient civilizations like India, China, Greece, Egypt, and Rome. Some ancient treatment systems are still in practice today. They have come down through generations.

For a minor burn injury the doctor may prescribe you a tube of ointment. But for the same, your grandma may put some aloe vera or use cold water. If children have cold in our country, grandmas give them honey and tulsi leaves to eat. And it works too. If you have a minor cut or wound, grown-ups may put some turmeric, marigold or aloe vera on it. Rural people usually use garlic, neem or turmeric to cure skin problems. With experience they have seen that these remedies work. Moreover, they are easy to get, are cheap and most often are without any side effects.

- 3 You have slightly cut your finger. You ask for something to put on it. Your partner suggests 'Bandaid'.
- 4 Your mother has a headache. You ask for a medicine. Your partner gives you 'Vicks'.

E People with a cold, a fever, or the flu often go to the doctor for help. But many people in our country also use home remedies for common illnesses. Read about some simple home remedies and answer the following questions.

Cough

For children's cough, grandmas give two tea-spoons of basil leaf/tulsi juice with one spoon of honey. It works excellent.

Some people take grape juice and honey too. It is also good for dry cough. Hot milk with honey is also useful in cough problems.

You can take ginger tea which is also a useful home remedy for cough.

Cold

Lemon juice is good for any cold because it contains vitamin C. Vitamin C increases body resistance. Lemon juice, hot water and honey together work well in healing common cold.

Toothache

In normal toothache, keep a clove in your mouth. Place it in between the aching teeth and suck on it. You can even apply clove oil on the affected tooth.

Garlic also cures toothache. Place a clove of garlic on the aching tooth and munch mildly. Its juice will work as a relief.

A pinch of pepper powder mixed with common salt works well on the aching tooth. It's especially effective against the increased sensitiveness of the teeth.

Headache

Eating apples give good result in headaches. While eating, add a little salt to it.

When headache is caused by cold winds, cinnamon works the best. Make a paste of cinnamon by mixing in water and apply it on your forehead.

A Work in pairs/groups and discuss the following questions.

B Read the text.

Tungipara, a small green village beside the river Madhumati, is under Gopalganj district. In the olden days, the villagers used to wake up with the chirping of birds. Many years ago, it was not the same Tungipara now full of the sound of motor vehicles passing the motorways. People used to move from one place to another by boat. The green nature, the paddy fields, the open sky, the glassy water of the river, the shades of the trees and the blowing wind developed the villagers as fun-loving friendly people.

A baby was born there in a prosperous Sheikh family on 17 March 1920. Do you know who this baby was? He was none other than our Father of the Nation, Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman. His father was Sheikh Lutfar Rahman and mother – Sayera Khatun. Many years ago, at the time of his birth, who could understand what potentials the boy had! Who could realize that this small boy would be the Father of the Nation one day?

Tungipara's Sheikh family is very well known in that area. Even there are songs and lyrics composed by the local bards narrating their pomp and glory. A religious man named Sheikh Borhanuddin founded this family many years ago. The ruins of the old buildings of the Sheikhs stand out as the symbol of their wealth during the Mughal era. Brick-buildings were not very common then. Over time, the next generations could not maintain that status. New tin-shed houses replaced the old brick ones. Mujib's childhood was spent in one of those houses, as he says in his autobiography.

It's difficult to say how Sheikh Borhanuddin came to Tungipara more than 200 years ago. However, history traces Sheikh Qudratullah and Sheikh Ekramullah brothers as his heirs. They were landlords in that area besides their own business and were socially very influential. They had so much wealth that once Qudratullah told one of the British officers, "I don't count my earnings, I just weigh my wealth". Bangabandhu and his relatives are descendants of these two brothers. Mujib carried the spirit and tradition of these bold people.

Mujib spent his childhood in Tungipara. All the local roads were his playground. He had cravings for diving in the river and getting drenched in the rainwater. He ran field after field in search of birds' nests. He was amused by kingfishers and weaver birds. The sweet melody of the doves charmed him a lot. This is why hanging out with other boys surrounded by nature was his passion. The pet-lover Mujib also had pet monkeys, dogs, and different types of Myna. He used to train the birds to sing and other pets to follow his instructions. He always took good care of them. In his childhood, he was a lean and thin boy and everyone especially his grandma was worried about his health. She always kept some milk, butter and other homemade milk items ready to improve the grandson's health. Mujib always preferred simple foods like plain rice, fish curry, and vegetables. But he had a fascination for rice with milk and banana at the end of the meal. Mujib had two elder sisters and two younger sisters along with a younger brother. His elder sisters were very caring to him. Everyone adored him a lot. He was 'Mia Bhai' to the villagers and 'Khoka' to his senior family members. Mujib had a natural bent of mind to mix with everyone.

In his early childhood, our Father of the Nation, Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, started his education in his village school named M. E. School. This school was established by one of his family ancestors and it was the only English school of that area. He spent first three grades there. Then he went to Gopalganj town to stay with his father and got enrolled at Gopalganj Public School in grade four. Mujib was so dear to his father! Little Mujib could not sleep at night without his father's affectionate touch. As a kid he was the eldest in his family and among his cousins. So he was adored by all. In his little age, Mujib was a very cheerful boy, not at all timid. He was greatly interested in playing games and singing. He was good at brotochari, which was a kind of folk dance. He loved to play football, volleyball and hockey with friends. He was considered an important player in his school team.

Because of his father's transfer in job, Mujib had to get enrolled at Madaripur High School in 1936. At that time, he started facing a serious eye problem. He needed surgery to recover his eyesight. His study and schooling were hampered for a long time. Spectacles became his companion since he was sixteen. He resumed his education at Gopalganj Mission School in 1937.

Bangabandhu's father appointed Mr. Kazi Abdul Hamid as a house tutor for Mujib. Mr. Hamid was a social worker and ran a welfare association named Muslim Sheba Samiti. He tried to help the poor boys. He used to collect alms from others for helpless students. It impressed young Mujib so much that he became a part of that activity. Every Sunday they set out for this purpose. His teacher used the money collected thus to buy books and other essential things or pay tuition fees for the poor students. After the sudden demise of Mr. Hamid, young Sheikh Mujib carried on the charity following his teacher.

Lesson 15 Our pride

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- read and understand texts
- ask and answer questions
- write short paragraphs
- participate in short dialogues and conversations on familiar topics

A Read the following passage.

For the people of Bangladesh, March is a month of unforgettable memories - memories of pride as well as of sorrow and grief. It is a month of proud memories because this month is marked with the historic speech of the Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman on 7th March 1971, when he urged everyone to be prepared for independence.

In the early hours of the 26th March, shortly before his arrest by the Pakistani army, Bangabandhu finally declared the independence of Bangladesh. Now 26th March is our Independence Day which we celebrate annually with pride and joy.

But March is also a month of sad memories for us. On the 25th March 1971, the Pakistani army swooped upon the Bangalees. They killed many unarmed and innocent men, women and children in Dhaka. The Bangalees did not let it go unchallenged. They started resisting the Pakistani army and the war of liberation began. On the 16th December of the same year, a new nation independent Bangladesh was born. This is why December 16 is our Victory Day when the Pakistani army surrendered unconditionally.

We, the Bangalees celebrate our Victory Day by remembering the roles of our fearless freedom fighters. On the other hand, we sadly remember all the sufferings that our people endured during the liberation war. We pay our deep respect to the martyrs who gave their lives for the independence of Bangladesh. Along with celebrating our Victory Day every year, we should make a pledge to work unitedly to build the Sonar Bangla that Bangabandhu dreamed of.

A1 Match a word in column A with a word in column B that has similar meaning.

annually	courageous
heroic	freedom
liberation	once a year

- d. How many months did we fight to achieve victory in our war of independence?

A3 Choose the answers you think will truly make Bangladesh Bangabandhu's 'Sonar Bangla' (the Golden Bengal).

- a When everyone in our country will have food, shelter and will be able to get treatment in sickness.
- b When every child will go to school and have quality education.

Once, a lion was sitting beside a river. Suddenly he looked at his own reflection and thought "My mane is too old. I need a new hairstyle!"

The lion then roared "I'm the king of the jungle and this unruly mane does not fit a king." He dipped his paw into the river and tried desperately to smooth his mane.

"Flap it all up. That will suit you!" the zebra said. "Yes, it will even look better with a bit of colour to match your moustache," the giraffe added. "What about a few ribbons?" the vulture asked. Then cried the hyena "I know, a paper crown is what you need!" A snake was passing by silently. Seeing the king there he simply raised his head.

"What do you think I should do, snake?" The king asked.

"If a king is a wise king, nobody cares about his hairstyle," The snake said with a hissing sound.

The king stared at the snake for some time. Then he smiled and kissed the snake.

"Oh, why am I so vain? Am I not the king of the jungle?" roared the lion. He shook his head from side to side to shake his mane back into place. "From now on I promise to be a wise king and not bother about my looks!" the lion roared.

At one stage, everything became meaningless to him. He gave away all of his properties. He started to think deeply about the Creator, about life, death and mankind. Hason Raja wrote a lot of songs, perhaps about a thousand in number. His book called "Hason Udash" was published in 1906. The book had 206 songs in it. In his songs Hason called himself 'Crazy Hason Raja' or the 'Pagla Hason Raja'. A volume called 'Hason Raja Samagra' (Complete Works of Hason Raja) was also published. The book contained 500 poems and songs. Some of the songs were written by the poet in Hindi.

Hason Raja's songs were always popular in Sylhet. But very soon they spread all over Bangladesh and beyond. In India's West Bengal, some eminent folk singers made Hason's songs popular. People often speak about the wonders of the past. Mostly they were huge buildings and constructions. They are awesome and fabulous, no doubt. But the wonders of the present world are also unbelievable. Read about the following recent inventions.

Computers

The invention of the computer is very important in human life. It has changed the life style of people in the world. We use it in every sphere of our life. We can use it for studies, communication, watching movies, listening to music, playing games, etc. In a moment we can get information from any part of the world on the computer. People do not feel lonely as they can send emails to their friends and relatives. Some of their friends and relatives also live in far off countries. Even they can talk to them face to face on different social media. With computer a person can always keep himself updated. Everybody should learn to use the computer. In fact the computer has made people's work easier and faster. At present, it has become a part of our daily life.

Space travel

Not hundred years before human beings used to think- Had I the wings of a bird!... Dream came true when the Right brothers flew with the first aeroplane. Now, people travel faster than a bird.

They not only travel from one continent to another continent, they travel from one planet to another planet. That human beings have set footsteps on the moon is now an old story. Spacecrafts have won the Mars. Every now and then spacecrafts are going to see the conditions of other planets. As a result, people are planning to be inter-space citizens in the coming days. A day will come when people will live in the moon, take education from the Jupiter and spend vacation in another space thousand light years away!

Mobile phones

Mobile phone is another useful invention of the world. Like computers mobile phones help us greatly in our daily life. Through mobiles we can connect the whole world. Only a few years ago we had difficulty to contact our near and dear ones. That was very costly too. Mobile phones are very handy and we can use them for communication with people at a very low cost. Mobile phones have different functions such as making calls, listening to music, taking photographs, storing information, etc. Even it can be used for distance learning.

We live in a global village

After completing the lesson students will be able to

- read and understand the texts
- follow instructions, commands, request and act accordingly
- understand and enjoy stories and poems

A Look at the pictures and discuss with your partner what you see in them.

B Sohan's uncle works in the army. At present he is in Congo in a UN Peacekeeping Mission. Read his letter and do the following activity.

Dear Sohan,

I got your letter two days ago. But I was very busy here. So I'm late to reply. Congo is a central African country. There is violence among political groups. So our life here is very challenging. We maintain peace and security. We distribute food, water, medicine to people. We sometimes build houses for them. We also teach children in small schools.

Last week I met an interesting young man here. His name is Gurmit Singh. He was born in India. In his early childhood, he left for Singapore with his parents and went to a Singaporean school. After a few years, he moved to Denmark and completed his school education there. For graduation, he went to the US and got a university degree. Then he left for the UK and completed his Master degree there.

Gurmit came to Congo to work for a voluntary organisation. His main job is to look after children's education in a community school. He belongs to a group of ten workers. They all came from different countries.

He is a nice fellow and a good friend of ours. We call him 'Mr Global Citizen'. I'm writing below the conversation I had with him the other day.

"You've been to so many countries! How do you feel about that?"

"It's nice to work with different people. I've come to know them... their language, culture, family, mind. I sometimes think I belong to all."

"Well, Gurmit you're a true global citizen."

"Aren't you too, Zul?" smiled Gurmit Singh. 'We all are the same human race, eh."

Well, that's all for today. Hope your exam is over by now. So, write to me soon about what you think of Gurmit.

With love,

Uncle 'Zul'

B1 Now, match the words in column A with their meaning in column B.

A	B
challenging	keep up
maintain	international
graduation	difficult

global	fight

B2 Read silently the text in B again. Then ask and answer the following questions.

- 1 Where is Congo?
- 2 Who call Gurmit Singh 'Mr Global Citizen'? Why?
- 3 What do you mean by 'global citizen'?

B3 Make a list of five questions you would like to ask Gurmit if you meet him.C Listen to the CD/audio and fill in the following gaps.

The term 'global village' was used by Marshal McLuhan. In 1962 and he wrote two books on media and communication. In his books he said that telephone, TV and electronic media have brought all mankind close to one another. For example, if we see the news of floods in a distant country on TV, we feel that we are also there. We can see what is happening at the same moment. We can share the same suffering with the people who are in the real at the moment. McLuhan believed that electronic would make the world a global village. When he first said about the idea of global village, the Internet was not invented. But now, personal computers and the Internet have made McLuhan's idea more than ever. Now the entire globe is in a world-wide web called 'The Internet'.

wage earner, skilled worker, economy, job, tourists, pleasure, abroad, foreign

B Work in pairs. Ask and answer the question first. Then read the following text to match your answers.

- Why is there demand for Bangladeshi workers?
- Do you know what countries they work in?
- Can you guess why don't they earn much money?

A huge number of Bangladeshi workers go abroad for jobs. There is always a high demand of workers in some foreign countries like the UAE, Oman, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Bahrain, etc. They like Bangladeshi workers because they are hard working. But this is a matter of regret that our workers are doing odd jobs. As a result they are not paid much. This is because our workers are not good at English, Arabic, or other languages. So we should develop language skills of our workers for the countries they go for work. If they can develop their language skills, they can get good jobs and send more money to our country. Thus the wage earners of our country can help develop our economy.

Number of workers go abroad for job
Skills required for good job abroad

People around the world are slowly changing their attitude towards medicine. More and more they are turning to natural cures. Natural cures are made of natural things, most often herbs and plants. History says that natural or herbal remedies are nothing new. People used them all along in different ages. Herbal medicines were used in ancient civilizations like India, China, Greece, Egypt, and Rome. Some ancient treatment systems are still in practice today. They have come down through generations.

For a minor burn injury the doctor may prescribe you a tube of ointment. But for the same, a rural grandma may put some aloe vera or use cold water. If children have cold in our country, grandmas give them honey and tulsi leaves to eat. And it works too. If you have a minor cut or wound, grown-ups may put some turmeric, marigold or aloe vera on it. Rural people usually use garlic, neem or turmeric to cure skin problems. With experience they have seen that these remedies work. Moreover, they are easy to get, are cheap and most often are without any side effect.

Subject : Plan for winter vacation

Dear Sarah

How are you? It's almost the end of the year. My final exam has just finished and the school is closed. I have planned to do a lot of things during the vacation. At first I'm going to buy some new story books to read during the vacation. Then I'll be going to Dhaka with my parents to stay few days with my uncle's family. We will stay there for about a week. During that time we are going to visit many important places in Dhaka. My father is going to take me to the Lalbag Fort, the Ahsan Manzil and the Mirpur National Zoo. My mother is going to take me to a market where I will buy a new school bag for myself. We will also go to the Shishu Park and the National Museum if we have time.

What is your plan? Write soon.

9. Write a dialogue between two friends about a performance that one of them participated in. 10

Suggested Answer:

Rivo : Hi! Dhrubo! How's it going?

Dhrubo : Not too well. I'm still embarrassed from last night.

Rivo : Oh no! What happened?

Dhrubo : Nothing too bad.

Rivo : Alright then. I heard you acted in a play in the cultural program of school yesterday. How was it?

Dhrubo : The play is the very reason I'm embarrassed! I didn't perform that well.

Rivo : That's contrary to what I heard.

Dhrubo : What do you mean?

Rivo : My parents went to the program and they told me the audience was laughing and clapping very loudly at the end of your performance. I wasn't surprised. You're honestly a natural performer!

Dhrubo : I wasn't trying to be funny, though. I was supposed to act gloomy in the play.

Rivo : You put a twist to the character you were supposed to be. That's not at all bad.

Dhrubo : I haven't heard any reviews yet, but I hope you're right.

Rivo : Then I hope I'm right too. I'll see you tomorrow, yeah?

Dhrubo : Definitely! I have to go home now; see you soon.

Rivo : Have a safe trip.

10. Answer the following questions into a continuous paragraph on “The Place I like Most”: 10

- a. What is the place you like most?
- b. How do you spend your time there?
- c. How is the weather there?
- d. What is the most exciting thing that happens there?
- e. What is the effect of such visits?

Suggested Answer:The Place I Like Most

A favourite place is a place with family, good weather and funny things to do. My village home is my favorite place for many reasons. My grandfather's family and my uncles live in the village. When I visit, my cousins and I laugh and play all day and night. I usually go there during the winter. My uncles and aunts take us to the village fair where we enjoy the rides. We devour juicy cakes and drink fresh date-juice. My family is fun to be with. The second reason is the weather. Instead of being hot and sweaty, it is always cool and moist. When I think about my visits, I can feel the crisp breeze in my hair. I can hear the soft sound of mist falling from leaves. I can feel the warm winter sun on my face. The third reason for my village home being my favorite place is fishing. We catch lots of fishes from the pond. Sometimes we catch fishes on hooks and sometimes we see uncles' fishing with the net. My grandmother cooks them. For all these reasons, my village home is my favorite place to go. It's good to visit a favorite place where one can make special memories and that is refreshing.
